

Nurturing Families Together

A husband and wife have a solemn responsibility to love and care for each other and for their children. The home is to be God's laboratory of love and service.

Russell M. Nelson

How often do we intentionally speak kind words to each other?

One of the best ways to invite love and harmony into our homes is by speaking kindly to our family members. Speaking kindly brings the Holy Ghost.

Linda K. Burton