

Enfolding with Love Those Who Stray

"The reality is that there are no perfect families, whatever problems your family is facing, whatever you must do to solve them, the beginning and the end of the solution is charity, the pure love of Christ."

-President Dieter F. Uchtdorf-

Consider this:

How can we continue to show charity to those who do not want to live the principles of the gospel?